

Skills progression documents allows for a skills-focused approach to History.

Children are taught to understand that all historical events have a cause and effect that impacts on future societies.

Opportunities given for cross-curricular work, including reading, writing and maths.

Produce an engaging and creative curriculum so that all children can become the historians of the future.

Timelines stuck in all KS1 and KS2 books.

School membership to the Historical Association.

Children discover history through key Historical skills, including investigation, thinking critically, asking questions, reflecting, debating and evaluating.

Growing together, hand in hand

History at Gorsemoor

What does it look like?

British Isles Celebrations

The children are learning about the history of the British Saints days.

Children gain an understanding of local history throughout their time at Gorsemoor.

Black History Month
All year groups celebrated Black History Month through a range of different themes.

Enrichment opportunities provided through trips and visitors to school.

VE day celebrations.

Remembrance Day was celebrated in school through history lessons and a 2 minute silence was followed.

Some children and teachers also attended the Remembrance parade at Heath Hayes Memorial.

Each unit is planned around a key skill, allowing children use each skill in an engaging, practical way to explore and discover Historically.