

I am a geographer

Growing together, hand in hand

- I am curious about the world around me and the people in it.
- I have an excellent knowledge of where places are and what they are like.
- I have an understanding of how places are interdependent and interconnected.
- I understand and can use geographical terminology.
- I have developed strong geographical skills and techniques.
- I have the ability to think critically and ask questions about the world around me.
- I understand how geographical issues affecting the world can impact on our lives both now and in the future.
- I can express well-balanced opinions.
- I have a passion for geography.

