

I am a Religious Scholar

Growing together, hand in hand

- I have an excellent knowledge and understanding of the main religions around the world.
- I have the ability to ask significant and reflective questions.
- I can show respect, empathy and compassion to those from other faiths.
- I can reflect on what Religion means to others and to myself.
- I understand that Religion can create different points of view.
- I can challenge the opinions of others.
- I have a passion for Religion and the beliefs and practices shared through stories and celebrations
